

Lorri Stewart

Vice President, Risk Management and Compliance/Associate General Counsel

The Centers/Cleveland Christian Home

Ms. Stewart possesses over two decades of experience in risk management, legal affairs, and operational roles within the nonprofit human services sector, primarily with organizations serving children. Beyond her private sector work, she has served as a Guardian Ad Litem in Cuyahoga County's Juvenile Court system, gaining deep insights into child welfare. A graduate of the University of Akron and the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Lorri is committed to leveraging her legal expertise to aid those working toward social reform and enhancing community life. Currently, as Vice President of Risk Management and Compliance/Associate General Counsel, she manages all aspects of risk, corporate, and program compliance in collaboration with her colleagues at the Centers and CCH, and leads risk management and legal oversight for internal investigations, including those concerning youth in the residential facility.
